I have noticed the general conditions for participation as well as the examination and training guidelines and I accept them as binding with my application.

Disclaimer:

The federation, its training and assistant personnel exclude liability for accidents, injuries, damages concerning participants of the training or third persons. The training is carried out at one's own risk of the instructor - aspirant. The participant is responsible for possible injuries due to not wearing a helmet or other protective equipment. The federation and its representatives are not to hold responsible. The participants of the training have to insure themselves sufficiently. Liability insurance, accident insurance, health insurance. All participants are aware of the fact that participating at this training as well as the sport of kitesurfing in general holds a higher risk for injuries. Also after the instructors got the KSA licence the federation and its representatives repudiate strictly liability for possible damages or claims (also claims from a third person) that might occur during instruction. The instructor has to insure himself and his school sufficiently by himself. Place of jurisdiction is Munich.
